FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

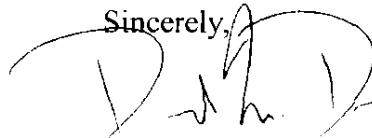

Re: Revision of the Commission's Rules to Ensure Compatibility with Enhanced 911 Emergency Calling Systems, CC Docket No. 94-102

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Michael Amarosa, Philip Verveer, and I, on behalf of TruePosition, Inc., met separately with Bryan Tramont, senior legal advisor to Chairman Powell, John Branscome, interim legal advisor, and Curtis Stamp, a legal intern, both from Commissioner Abernathy's office, Paul Margie, legal advisor to Commissioner Copps, and Sam Feder, legal advisor to Commissioner Martin. We discussed the progress TruePosition has made in deploying its network-based location technology. In addition, we discussed the findings from Dale Hatfield's report on wireless E911 and current issues surrounding Phase II deployment, including LEC provisioning and PSAP readiness.

In accordance with the Commission's rules, I am submitting two copies of this letter

Sincerely,

David M. Don
